Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 13-19, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Yokono et al U.S. Patent 6,538,761.

2. As per claim 13, Yokono et al discloses a data processing system, comprising:

Art Unit: 3621

a read-only storage medium storing a first protection key (fig. 6 and 21; col. 11, lines 58-68, col 12, lines 1-5, 54-67);

a writable storage medium storing at least image data (fig. 6, col. 11, lines 50-58); and a processor to access both of the read-only storage medium and the writable storage medium so as to conduct processing the image data (col. 9, lines 20-30, col. 10, lines 15-20).

3. As per claim 14, Yokono et al further discloses the data processing system, wherein both of the read-only storage medium and the writable storage medium store a second protection key having a correlation to both the read-only storage medium and the writable storage medium (col. 11, lines 50-67, col. 12, lines 39-45).

4. As per claim 15, Yokono et al further discloses the data processing system, wherein the read-only storage medium stores global service information and the writable storage medium stores local service information (see fig. 8).

5. As per claim 16, Yokono et al further discloses the data processing system, wherein the first protection key is stored at an exclusive place in the non-writable storage medium where only a specific data processing apparatus can conduct reading or writing (see fig. 6A, 6B and 6C, col. 12, lines 39-45, 54-67).

6. As per claim 17, Yokono et al further discloses the data processing system, wherein the second protection key is stored at an exclusive place in the writable storage medium where only a specific data processing apparatus can conduct reading or writing (see fig. 6A, 6B and 6C, col. 12, lines 39-45, 54-67).

7. As per claim 18, Yokono et al further discloses the data processing system, wherein at least one of the first protection key and the second protection key is stored at an exclusive place where only a specific data processing apparatus possible can conduct reading or writing (see fig. 6A, 6B and 6C, col. 12, lines 39-45, 54-67).

8. As per claim 19, Yokono et al further discloses the data processing system, wherein an executing file is stored only in the read-only storage medium (see fig. 6 and 11; col. 11, lines 44-49, col. 12, lines 54-60).

Conclusion

Examiner's Note: Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims below for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings in the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested that the applicant, in preparing the responses, fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the examiner.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Charles C. Agwumezie whose number is (703) 305-0586. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday – Friday 8:00 am – 5:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, James Trammell can be reached on (703) 305 – 9768. The fax phone number for the organization where the application or proceeding is assigned is (703) 305-7687.
